

What the Critics have said about Ronald M. Banks

"Banks is extraordinary... He uses his sonorous bass voice to ominous effect..."

~Terry Morgan, Variety

"The show's success hinges on a powerful lead, and Banks is a hit. From the minute he enters the stage, with a powerful stride, fierce eyes and a booming baritone voice, he grabs the audience by their throats and never lets go."

~The Daily Breeze

"[His] strong, resonating baritone reverberates throughout the theater, and his psychotic stares and intimidating manner are mesmerizing."

~LA Downtown News

"Ronald Banks is a king-sized actor who is both commanding and vulnerable, a hard combination to find in male leads."

~Arizona Tribune

"With [his] classically trained voice, this actor doesn't need to stand in anyone's shadow. He has animal magnetism aplenty."

~Dallas Star-Telegram

"Banks is blessed with a resonant baritone voice, both for speaking and singing.

He's a talent to watch out for."

~Torrance Daily Breeze

"[He] steps up to the plate and offers a performance you could hang a star on. In addition, Banks adds an impressive vocal element with his rich and commanding singing voice."

~North County Times

"Ronald Banks, is a commanding presence with a full rich, baritone resonance..."

~Pomeroado Newspaper Group

"(He has a) gorgeous opera-quality voice. Who knew he could be so funny?"

~Backstage West

"Ronald M. Banks has a strong presence and a big, rich baritone..."

~The Beach Reporter

For more information see
www.ronaldmbanks.com